The Exposition Theater was closed last night, Manager Fulton declaring that the attraction was not good enough for his house. He will reopen with the Firmit-Jack Company Thursday night.

The Dime Museum is in capital shape, strong enough to hold a thousand, and with enough in its walls to attract as many. The stage performance, which is given every hour, is worth three times the price of admission.

-R. L. McDaniel and Emma E. Alexander, A. A. Gillespie and Mrs. M. M. Gillespie, Theson Williams and Caroline Foster, John H. Jones and Alice McGee The officers of the United States Court returned yesterday from Jackson, where a large amount of business has been transacted. Forty-two moonshiners were tried during the session. Ten of them were distillers and the remainder of them employed in markets. The following are the capital prize numbers in the drawing of the Louisiana S ate Lottery at New Orleans yesterday: ployed in various ways about the illicit stills. Nearly all of them were convicted, and Judge Hammond imposed light sen-tences. In the cases of those actually em-ployed in running stills he fixed the pun-ishment at six months imprisonment. That is not the lowest term, but a very No. 46,799 drew $75,000; 5348 drew $25,000; 3238 drew $10,000, sold at Memphis; 46,016 drew $6000; 80,389 drew $6000. —In the United States Circuit Court vesterday it was announced by Judge Hammond that Judge Baxter would preside on the 30th of November, and remain in Memphis to dispose of the business of the court, and parties and their attorneys are requested to take notice. light penalty. The remainder were sentenced to thirty days each and a fine of $100. The law against the manufacture and sale of unlicensed whisky is very strict, and is so broad as to cover not only those who are engaged in the manufacture on their own account but those who ure on their own account, but those who make the stills in certain cases, the diggers of wells, drawers of water and hewers of wood. Whoever hauls grain or wood to an illicit still, whether merely as a laborer or not, is open to indictment. Judge Hammond warned the moonshiners that he would inflict a heavier penalty in futare, as the government was determined to break up illicit stills.

During the session of the court, J. N mittee ward to with more than usual interest by the young people, and their host last night did not disappoint them. The decorations were in the best taste, the music was enchanting and the banquet was one of the most inviting to which any similar party ever sat down. The scene was of the liveliest description and the exestion of the court, 3. No. Shivers, a postmaster at Meaders, Tenn, was convicted of opening a registered letter and abstracting $10 from it, his sentence being a year in the penitentiary. R. M. Thompson, charged with withholding pension money, was convicted, and jumped his bond when sentence was respecially notable for the large number of prominent people who were present in full evening dress, looking on, but taking no active part in the excitement of the dance. It is impossible to give a list of the vorce.

It is impossible to give a list of the young gentlemen present, but the following is was entered, was given in the APPEAL THE MOZARTS To Go Ahead Again, and Begin Thei Rehearsals Next Monday Night. Last night a large number of enthusi-astic members of the Mczart Society met at the Young Men's Hebrew Association Hall for the purpose of finally deciding upon all questions of interest to the society.

Mr. P. McIntyre, the vice-president called the meeting to order, and stated that the general opinion among the members of the chorus was that after the deb had been canceled there would be nothing to prevent the society from going on as sual, and that it was now time to act ecidedly and without any unnecessary

Mr. John S. Toof said that the society should go on and that to allow the Mozarts o go do an for good would undo the re-ult of weeks and months of hard work. Other members of the society then expressed themselves in a similar vein, after which a motion by Mr. E. W. Hebbard, J. C. Blaine, Ark. that the society meet next Monda night, at the hall in the Le a conservatory, to begin rehearsing, we sunanimously adopted. It is expected that all the old members, and as many others as wish to join the society, will be present to enroll their names and assist in choosing a conductor for the year. Speaking of the Tri-State Medical Soci ty, which meets at the Gayoso Hote he Board of Health, said vesterday: can Public Health Association to hold its ext meeting in this city, but as Congres was to be in session then (December), it was decided to hold it in Washington. There was a decided sentiment in favor of olding it here next time, and if a spark it still exists, I shall try and have then adjourn at Washington to meet in Mem phis. I cannot think of any city more in teresting and more appropriate for a meeting of the kind. By that time, perhaps, we will have a respectable hall, all these torn-up streets will be laid, and the cars running, new buildings and new enter-prises will have been established, and I shall not feel ashamed to have them THE SCHOOL FUND. The Amount Derived from the Ten Several members of the School Board ergaged in conversation yesterday even ing, did a little figuring on the amount hey would receive from the tax of 10 ents levied for public buildings and chools. The schools, by distinct agree-

Wheelbarrows. Wheel-Scrapers,

Shovels, Drag-Scrapers, Mattocks,

IN THE SPRING of 1884 an eruption appeared on the backs of my hands. I supposed I was poisoned by ivy. My hands continued to grow wor e, until the fall, when I consulted medical advice, and used many remedies to no purpose. Instead of getting better they rapidly grow worse, being a mass of watery, festering, raw flesh, very offensive and annoying. Whenever a part would heal up it would be subject to the most violent itching, and immediately break out worse than before. Little watery spots then appeared on my finger joints, and festering would stread over a large surface. In this condition I began the use of the Curicura Remedies. In one week's time my hands were almost well, and in a short time entirely cured.
